Your traveling show

framed a moment
by the doorway.
To you, it’s you

in a proscenium, arch
selves advancing
planes. To me

a something I assemble
till fields narrow to one.

Some mathematicians dream
numbers to shapes, or
the opposite, their

boundary casual--
most we do is.